Please check the endorsement process you would prefer the district to use when selecting candidates for district endorsement.

At an endorsement meeting, the District should allow motions and votes for endorsement of candidates one-by-one as opposed to all candidates at once even when there are multiple candidates running for a race. (To put this another way: we would allow nominations from the floor for any candidate and then vote to endorse or not endorse that candidate. This generally means a serial process of considering each candidate for a race without first trying to narrow the pool, as we did this year.)
