

Speakers for September, 2010 Meeting of the 34th District Democrats
Updated 31 August 2010

Sili Savusa, Family Center Coordinator

Sili Savusa has been with SWYFS since 2003. She is a community organizer and trainer who has organized around education and social justice with an emphasis on Pacific Islander communities for more than 20 years. Sili is deeply engaged as a community volunteer, serving as a member of the Highline School Board, the API Advisory Council at Southwest Community College, the API Education Think Tank. She is a board member for Village of Hope in West Seattle and Community Schools Collaboration of South King County. Sili also does anti-racist organizing work as a resource trainer with the People's Institute for Survival and Beyond.