

Resolution on the WA State Primary Election

Whereas the voters of Washington State and the courts are in conflict over the primary election, be it resolved that the primary be eliminated entirely to be replaced by a main election ballot on which the voters can rank their candidate choices for each office. The ballots will be processed by Instant Runoff Voting (IRV).