34th Legislative District Reorganization Notice

Wednesday, January 11, 2017

At The Hall at Fauntleroy

9131 California Ave SW, Across from the YMCA. Social Time: 6:30pm, Meeting: 7:00pm

Every two years all Democratic Party Organizations in Washington elect new officers and appoint new committee chairs. While any Democrat is welcome to attend, only PCOs elected in the August, 2016, primary election can vote for most officers, but all 2017 members can vote for Treasurer and Secretary (see our by-laws, Article IV, Section 2). Although it is preferred that PCOs pay some level of membership dues, it isn't a requirement for elected PCOs to vote. A list of PCOs who were elected in August, 2016, and are eligible to vote is here. Renewing members who are NOT PCOs must pay 2017 membership dues in order to vote - you can do so online here or at the meeting. Proxy voting is not allowed.

Restorative Juvenile Justice Workshop

King County

WE HAVE A DREAM

Strengthening Community and the Futures of Our Youth
Through Storytelling

WORKSHOP DISCUSSIONS:

- Restorative Justice Practice
- Reimagining Juvenile Justice
- Racial Equity
- Community Collaboration

January 14
1 - 4 pm

YOUNGSTOWN
CULTURAL ARTS CENTER

In King County, youth of color are being disproportionately referred to the juvenile justice system at a rate higher than their white peers.

Through workshop DNDA and partners will steer a community conversation around alternative justice practices to raise awareness about racial inequity present in the juvenile justice system. This event, supported by United Way of King County, will activate volunteers as partners to engage in storytelling, peacemaking circles, help foster emotional connections, and brainstorm realistic strategies for change. Snacks will be provided, open to the general public.

Contact Rachel Glass for info: werdachel@aol.com

Volunteer Drivers Needed

The KCDCC disAbilities Committee needs help getting their co-Chair to meetings with Legislators in their home Districts and in Olympia pre and early session to draft legislation in response to the cannabis oil price pricing crisis, which has left thousands of ill Washingtonians without medicine and sometimes dying. None of these places is more than three hours away by car. If each of several volunteers could drive her to just one meeting it would make this task much more workable. If we have a few different volunteers to get her to her Legislative meetings, each person will only need to help out once.

Call 206-632-2868 to volunteer.

Resolution in Opposition to Medicare Privatization

WHEREAS the establishment of Medicare in 1965 provided health insurance to everyone over 65, half of whom had no health insurance of any kind; and

WHEREAS all programs benefitting the public will be under massive attack in 2017 with the control by Republicans of both houses of Congress and the presidency; and

WHEREAS Representative Paul Ryan of Wisconsin has already proposed legislation that will eliminate Medicare and replace it with vouchers to be applied to private insurance policies (CouponCare); and

WHEREAS age-rated policies are inevitably disastrously expensive, particularly for those older people who are in poorer health; and

WHEREAS the Congressional Budget Office evaluated the cost to seniors of privatizing Medicare in 2011 and estimated that health care costs for beneficiaries would be doubled at minimum;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 34th Legislative District Democrats demand that our entire Congressional delegation oppose Medicare privatization with no compromises; and

THEREFORE BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the 34th Legislative District Democrats send copies of this resolution to our senators and to all Congressional representatives in Washington State.

Submitted to the 34th Legislative District Democrats meeting of January 11, 2017 by Martha Koester, PCO Sylvan Precinct

The New KCDCC Officers for 2017-2018

At the reorganization meeting Dec. 4th members of the King County Democratic Central Committee selected nine officers for 2017-2018 at which a record number of PCOs attended to vote. The new KCDCC Officers are:

Bailey Stober, Chair (Auburn)

Cat Williams, First Vice Chair (Woodinville)

Michael Maddux, Second Vice Chair (Seattle)

Orchideh Raisdanai, Third Vice Chair (Duvall)

Bridget Hudson, Fourth Vice Chair (Seattle)

Nancy Podschwit, Treasurer (Renton)

Roger Crew, Secretary (Mercer Island)

Chad Lupkes, State Committeemember (male) (Seattle)

Seattle “Democracy Vouchers” Coming Soon

Last year Seattle voters approved the initiative I-122 titled "Honest Elections Seattle". Funded by a modest property tax, it limits election campaign contributions from entities receiving City contracts totaling $250,000 or more, or from persons spending $5,000 or more for lobbying. It also requires paid signature gatherer identification. In addition it limits lobbying by former City officials.

I-122 also creates a voluntary program for public campaign financing through $100 allotments called "Democracy Vouchers". Registered voters in Seattle will receive four $25 vouchers that can be assigned for the use of any qualified candidate for Seattle City office. In 2017 the office-seekers for City Council and City Attorney are eligible to apply for this new public financing method. In 2021 this program will be expanded to include Mayoral candidates.

These vouchers will be valid until November 30, 2017. They may not be transferred to another voter either by sale or gifting and they have no monetary value except to the qualified candidate(s) of your choice. So keep involved with this year's election and use this opportunity to participate in this new means of public financing of our city elections.

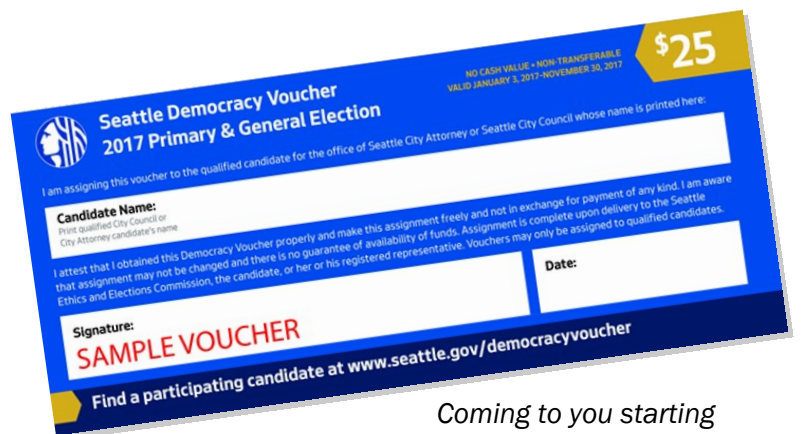

All registered voters will automatically receive vouchers in the mail beginning January 3.

Those newly registered in 2017 may apply to receive vouchers later in 2017 by applying at:

www.seattle.gov/democracvoucher

or drop it off at: 700 5th Ave, Suite 4010; or mail it to

Democracy Voucher Program
PO Box 35196
Seattle, WA, 98124-5196.

Coming to you starting
January 3rd

Thanks to our Faithful 7th Congressional Elector, Chris Porter

Here is his letter to the Seattle Times, published on December 21, 2016 in case you missed it:

“On Monday, I sat in a room at the Capitol in Olympia. I was there as an elector to vote for president and vice-president of the United States. There are great arguments about whether or not the Electoral College has a role in today’s politics, but that is not the issue at hand. Like the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, it is a pledge and a promise.

The four electors who broke ranks took a public pledge and promise to follow the will of the voters. When we allow citizens to go back on their word and ignore a pledge and promise, it becomes easier to ignore each other.

As a Democrat, I am not happy about the election, but keeping my word, honoring the public pledge and promise I took, means the world to me.

I do not want to live in a world where my son gets the impression that giving your word and keeping a promise is optional.

The essence of making a promise and keeping your word is that at some point you will be tested. Your integrity rests on your ability to keep your word and promise.

On Monday, four presidential electors proved that their word and promise do not matter. Can they be trusted?”

Officer Candidates for 2017-2018

David Ginsberg | Candidate for Chair

I'm running for Chair of the 34th District Democrats because I want to help grow our membership and increase engagement in our communities to meet the challenges ahead together. I'm a strong believer in the power of grassroots, neighbor-to-neighbor organizing, and if you elect me as Chair I will devote my term to building the best and strongest LD in the state.

To that end I'll focus on three areas:

Build our membership

- Recruit active, engaged PCOs for every precinct in the District
- Encourage monthly, or at a minimum quarterly events in every precinct
- Use this increased engagement to identify and bring in new members/candidates

Make the organization more reflective of the district it represents

- Focus on diversity – this has been and remains a challenge
- Strengthen and build relationships with other community organizations
- Leverage those relationships to increase diversity

Share our strength

- After we accomplish goal #1 above and if the membership is willing, I'd like to partner with a red/purple LD and help them build their organization
- Quarterly outings to the LD to help knock on doors and build membership

These are big goals, but I know from experience we can accomplish them. In early 2008 I started and led the High Point Vote Project, which brought the state's most populous precinct from a couple dozen registered voters to more than 1,000 by the November election. That same year I led the Obama Campaign's Neighborhood Leader Program for the 34th District, and recruited active and engaged Neighborhood Leaders for every precinct.

I believe these goals are commensurate with the challenges we face and I'm confident that together we can and will accomplish them. I ask for your vote for Chair, and if you entrust me with it, I will work every day to make sure we do.

Treina Aronson | Candidate for 1st Vice Chair

We have an incredible opportunity in the 34th to mobilize our neighbors' passionate outrage and readiness to act. When people ask "How can I help?", we need to have answers. Now is the time to create a democratic party for everyone. Our district is diverse, our membership needs to reflect this diversity.

Together, we can build a dynamic district with a robust membership. We can do this by increasing our digital presence, strengthening community partnerships, and better utilizing the talents of our membership. We also need to strategically partner with other districts to make sure Washington stays beautifully blue!

A lifelong Democrat and Washingtonian, I live and work in West Seattle. At home and abroad my work has connected me to people from diverse backgrounds. I'm a passionate advocate for equality and have experience mediating differences and forming strong collaborative relationships. I've served as a board member for Shepherd's Counseling and Campaign Manager for Renton City Council. I was a delegate in 2008/2016. Currently a PCO, this year I served as an Election Observer. If I'm so honored to be elected First Vice Chair, my focus will be on building a vibrant volunteer coalition and leading the Women's Caucus.

Michael Taylor-Judd | Candidate for 2nd Vice Chair

Michael Taylor-Judd is a long-time Democratic activist and member of the 34th LD Democrats, and has been a past Executive Board member, serving as Secretary. Michael is Precinct Committee Officer, and in 2011 mounted a campaign for Seattle City Council. He is deeply involved in community organizations and issues and he hopes to use these connections to help develop interesting and topical meeting programs.

Lisa Plymate | Candidate for Female State Representative

Like you, I was devastated by the November 8th election results. My immediate thoughts went to my children, my grandchildren and our planet – their future suddenly upside-down. We have to galvanize and mobilize Americans who have never participated in our democracy before to fight our way out of this nightmare.

As we watch Trump’s parade of corporate cabinet picks, we are horrified over what we could lose in virtually every area we care about, from the environment to world peace. My own niche in our battles will remain: (1) Fighting for health justice on all levels. I will continue to work state and national physician advocacy groups that fight for patients primarily. (2) Serving as State Committeemember, taking your voice to the state party, communicating back with you.

Never has this job been more critical. The state party – and the Democratic National Committee – must heed our cry for change, but we must not stoop to the tactics of the Republicans. We must fight fire with fire but avoid tactics and strategies that tear apart our democracy. We know our values – we must shout them out so that they’re heard above the cacophony of lies. Voters rights are key: no more gerrymandering; corporations are not people; and one person: one vote. For all of this, strong leadership is crucial. The first job of State Committee in January is to elect our chair. This individual must: (1) hold and convey our values; (2) be a strong fighter, ready to call out fouls; (3) show effective leadership that respects differences while bringing us together; and (4) work with our electeds and candidates to message a positive agenda. We must improve our presence in rural Washington. We must find, develop and support outstanding candidates at all levels of the ballot. We will move from a caucus to a primary system in a way that strengthens our communities and builds our party. I stand eager to work with all of you. Where we wanted to move ahead, we must now hold tight to what we have. And when we start to see daylight again, we have our vision. We will have our candidates and we will be ready.

Patrick Wicklund | Candidate for Male State Representative

We have some intense work to do in our party, I’d like to serve the 34th as a Committeeman because I think I can help! I am aware that I am challenging Chris, who is highly respected (in part) because of the great job he has done during his terms – but I also think it is important to cultivate a deep bench of experience within the organization. If I win your votes I will rely on leaders like Chris Porter to help me represent our district.

Brief Bio: I have been a dues paying member for approximately 15 years, benefited from Seattle Public Schools, worked on six Democratic campaign cycles statewide, served as staff on the US House Armed Services Committee, organized and founded AFSCME Local 658 at the US Capitol, served at USDA’s Foreign Agricultural Service where I was AFSCME Local 3976 President, earned a BA in Political Science and an MA in National Security and Strategic Studies / Counter Terrorism. Most recently I was honored to return home to Seattle to work for the Hon. Joe McDermott as his Field Director during his Congressional bid. Thank you!

Chris Porter | Candidate for Male State Representative

Fellow PCO Democrats of the 34th LD,

My name is Chris Porter and I am running for State Committeeman. Three things I hope to accomplish as state committeeman:

- Insist that the state party endorse democrats up and down the ticket even when there is more than one on the ballot.
- Insist that we lead an effort to restore felon’s right to vote when they are discharged from prison, and not when parole is complete and fines are paid.
- Increase diversity in the LD and central committee’s executive boards.

It has been a pleasure to serve and each year, and I feel challenged to do more than I did the year before. It was exciting to get elected as the Elector for the congressional district and stand up against those that refused to keep their word.

This past year I have had the opportunity to lead a panel discussion on “Seattle Police and their relationship with communities of color.”, and to speak to community and fellow members of the 34th about diversity. Working with other Democrats to staff booths at fairs and community events is the proud work of being a democrat and I am happy to do it. I led a site to caucus as an Area Caucus Coordinator during the Presidential cycle, and served as sub-caucus chair for the Bernie Sanders delegates.

I am a proud PCO and believe in a more progressive future for the 34th LD and I ask for your vote.

Carrie Alexander | Candidate for King County Committeewoman

My name is Carrie Alexander and I am running for election to represent the 34th LD as Committeewoman to the King County Democrats Central Committee (KCDCC). I am truly grateful for the work of the current Executive Board of the 34th and appreciate how open they are to helping newly energized democrats! I hope to gain your support and vote at our reorganization meeting on January 11th. I truly believe in being of service to those in our community and a position on the KCDCC is a fantastic way to interact with other King County Legislative Districts and see how we can help in areas that are not as progressive as ours to ensure the best candidates are elected for positions throughout our region.

“There is promise in the problem.” People are motivated by their anxiety over the incoming President to become more involved. We are determined to fight together and to stand together for our principles: the principles of equality, justice and freedom. This is an opportunity to bring people in, and once they are here, make sure they feel welcomed and are able to participate as much as they would like!

I am an active volunteer with Our Revolution and an elected PCO. I am willing to help in as many ways as are needed. Although I do not possess the experience that Martha Koester has brought to this position, she is committed to continuing to help. With her guidance, I ask for your support for the position of KCDCC Committeewoman.

Martha Koester | Candidate for King County Committeewoman Alternate

I am currently the female KCDCC representative for the 34th LD. I will be stepping down from this position to promote more involvement from new members with the 34th LD organization. I will attend meetings even if the regular representative is able to be there due to longstanding ties with a number of other LD activists. This would also insure that I would be available as a mentor.

Les Treall | Candidate for King County Committeeman

Dear Members and PCOs of the 34th District Democrats, I am running for the position of King County Committeeman and I ask for your support. Many of you know me. I have been a member since 2005 and have served as Outreach Chair, LAC Chair and for the last 4 years as PCO Chair.

I have long questioned the purpose and usefulness of KCDCC. I have felt they just don't accomplish anything. I have felt that they use some of our key volunteers and burn them out, and they meddled with local LD's endorsements and often countermanded them. With their new leadership, I am hopeful that we can shift the emphasis of KCDCC to that of coordinating electoral campaigns for the more rural LDs and shift those LDs from red to blue. At their reorganization, I heard a number of their new leadership speak about it and I wish to be part of that effort. My efforts this past year with my “Win the Legislature” campaign in the 34th, revealed a total lack of coordination and cohesiveness in this area and I want to change that.

I ask for your vote.

Ted Barker | Candidate for King County Committeeman Alternate

I would like to thank you for allowing my to serve as first vice chair of the 34th District Democrats for the last four years. It is time for a change on my part and that is why I'm requesting your vote to be the King County Committeeman Alternate. In this capacity I will be the back up representative to the King County Democrats. During the time I have been involved with the 34th I have seen various chairs come and go at the KCDCC. They have had different ideas on how the County and the LD's should divide the work of furthering the Democratic Party. In this time I have felt like the County and the LD's have duplicated efforts and competed with each other for resources, both financial and human. I'm excited by the new leadership at the KCDCC and while they may not yet have all the answers, they at least understand the questions. I look forward, with your approval of working with the County on behalf of the 34th. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns you may have at tbarker@comcast.net or 206.954.7755. Thank you for your consideration.

Gina Topp | Candidate for Treasurer

My name is Gina Topp. I am asking for your vote for treasurer of the 34th District Democrats at the reorganization meeting in January.

I have been a life-long Democrat. I grew up in the 31st Legislative District (Auburn). I recently moved to the 34th Legislative District, only a few blocks away from where my grandparents grew up. My significant other and I run a small print management company and in my free time I attend law school at the University of Washington- Go Huskies!

I have extensive experience fundraising and I am knowledgeable in the current software the treasurer must utilize. In addition, I am familiar with the Public Disclosure Commission rules and report requirements that are the responsibility of the treasurer. As treasurer I will make sure every penny is accounted for, reports are turned in on time, and our finances are accessible and transparent.

After this year’s terrifying national election results we need to make sure the values of the 34th Legislative District help shape the next chapter of our nation’s history. This starts with the 2017 local elections here in our own backyard. I look forward to helping to ensure these positions are filled with effective candidates who share our 34th District values.

I appreciate you taking the time to read this letter. It would be an honor to serve as your treasurer. If you have any questions I can be reached at ginatopp@gmail.com or 253.691.0135.

Jason Cheung | Candidate for Secretary

My name is Jason Cheung, and I would be honored to serve as the 34th's Secretary for the coming term.

As long as I can remember, I have believed that the Democratic Party has been the party of inclusion, diversity, and of caring about the working men and women of our United States, and that the Republican Party has been the party of exclusion, avarice and hypocrisy. I do NOT believe that they care about anything more than profiting off of the backs of their employees, and of finding any way possible to game the system.

I volunteered for Paul Tsongas in college and was one of the original People for Pedersen when he ran for State Representative in 2006. I also served on the Board of the University District BIA while

I managed the Pagliacci on the Ave.

I am running for Secretary to serve the 34th, to help fight the Trump agenda, and to get to know folks. I am very proud to work for the Environmental Coalition of South Seattle (ECOSS) and am fortunate to work with very diverse crew. I'm married and have a son named Cooper who you may have seen at a meeting or two, and in my spare time I am a competitive Air Guitarist and Air Drummer. (Yes, these are actual things.)

Thank you for taking the time to read this, and I would appreciate your vote!
